

Like a flower in the desert

Rozenberg Quarterly is growing, thriving and brimming with plans for the future. We have plans to make more full books available online and will continue to bring attention to Ikki's island.

The main goal is to continue to offer our content for free.

Six years ago we brought attention to the donation buttons on our website. Today we would once again point those out.

One of the reasons is that the cost of maintenance has gotten significantly higher. Due to ongoing attacks on the world wide web, the price of security has gone up. We will not be brought to our knees in these strange times. But we hope to get some help from you, so that we can remain a flower in the desert.

The donation buttons can be found in the right sidebar of the website.
